STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice require the Community Supervision Agency to assist, approve, verify and monitor employable juveniles in finding gainful employment. All unemployed juveniles will be assessed for their ability to work and, as appropriate; will be provided with structured job search activities.

DISCUSSION: The Community Supervision Officer may solicit job placement assistance from labor unions, public agencies, private sector businesses and community action or self-help groups.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
